Luxury Cashmere

If you haven't used skin oils before, you've probably discussed them as being either heavy-duty or thought that adding oil to your naturally oily skin type would be counterproductive. But the newest oil we've introduced as serum, High + Gritz Recovery Treatment Oil, actually recalibrates the skin's natural oil production and reduces inflammation with antioxidants when needed to the evening. It might be called Cashmere because it's made with Yunnan Oil acts like a moisturizer for your face with good fatty oils, tannin extract and pure vitamin E to coax the skin into optimum repair mode.
